History Spot

Gone but not forgotten...

The Wellington Inn, Oldham Road, Waterloo originally opened as the 'Waterloo' however the name was changed in 1856, 4 years after the death of the Duke of Wellington.

The Wellington later went under the ownership of Wilson's Brewery in 1896.

A popular public house in the 1990's and early 2000's it changed ownership several times and after a spell of being vacant, the former public house was converted in 2011 and became a Tesco Express Supermarket.

Charity Night

Waterloo and Taunton Conservative Club are proud to be supporting an extra special charity night to commemorate 100th anniversary of the Battle of the Somme.

- Saturday 19th November 2016, 8pm onwards. Live entertainment, charity hamper draw, fancy dress.

The battle of the Somme was one of the worst during World War I. On the first day alone – the 1st July 1916 – the British Army lost 60,000 men, of whom 20,000 were killed.

Our special night of remembrance is being held in partnership the Ashton Armoury Trust. They provide services for veterans, and offer advice and guidance for veterans in the Tameside and Oldham area.

Read about the excellent work they undertake at www.armourytrust.org.uk

Remembrance Sunday 2016

Members are invited to join the Committee at this year's Remembrance Service in Waterloo. A wreath will be laid by the Committee on behalf of Waterloo and Taunton Conservative Club.

This year's service will be held on Sunday 13th November 2016.

Parade will assemble at Canon Burrows Primary School, Oldham Road, at 2pm and proceed to war memorial on Oldham Road for service at 2.30pm.
